AN ASSESSMENT OF IT STUDENTS' COMPETENCIES IN TECHNOPRENEURSHIP COURSE

Hydie DC Cruz
College of Computer Studies and Engineering

Technopreneurship is one of the subject included in the curriculum of Information Technology Education (ITE) under CMOS 53 of series 2006.   The purpose of this study is to assess the Technopreneurship competencies of 4th Year BSIT students of Jose Rizal University.

This study used quantitative and qualitative approaches. The 4th year students enrolled at Technopreneur course under the BSIT program presented their Business IT Proposal Project. Their proposals were assessed based on their Entreprenuerial Skills which was marked as "Agree", their IT Skills which was also marked as "Agree", and their Project Evaluations using ISO 9126 using questionnaire which was marked as "Very Acceptable". In qualitative approach use interview to gather personal experience and opinion