

OUT-CAMPUS REVIEW PROGRAM OF BSA FOURTH YEAR STUDENTS OF JOSE RIZAL UNIVERSITY

Danica Dyan Dumali

College of Business Administration and Accountancy

The study showed the vivid picture of the out-campus review program visualized from the point of view of the students themselves. It explored the effects of such program to the learning of the students and revealed their actual experience throughout the review. The respondents believed that the review enhance their knowledge in the accounting subjects. The study noted that the review is considered to be a good preparation for the CPA Board Examination. It was determined that the overall experience took a lot of adjustments. It set the emotional, mental and physical awareness of the CPA aspirants for taking the actual post-graduate review. The program is said to be relevant and effective for the JRU Fourth Year BSA students.